

Flower Illustration for card Design with artist Jan Hill on Monday 28th March, 2022 10.30 - 3.30pm £45pp. 6 places
 Painting with colourful, but accurate depiction, of fresh Spring flowers, which will make a very attractive greeting card with your own personal touch. Using watercolours with careful shading and tones for 3D depth, combined with some design elements to add a decorative finish. An Easter card producing a 3D 'box card' assemblage, based on careful, clearly painted flower design, with additional extras if you wish to add insects or small 'creatures'!
 Quality paper should be used that you can buy from the tutor on the day, also the necessary paints and equipment are available at extra cost. A 'shopping list' of the items can be supplied on request for you to buy and bring along with you.
 Tea/coffee/biscuits supplied - please bring a packed lunch.

Traditional watercolour techniques for Atmospheric skies and simple landscape with artist Jan Hill on 4th & 11th April, 2022 10.30 - 3.30 £45pp each session. We will be working with a limited range of good quality paints to achieve mixes of realistic colours for different skies & weather situations. Grasping the use of pale washes & then mid-tones to capture light, cloud and drama in the painting. Allowing the paint to flow in some places, controlling it more in others. Adding a very simple area of land shape form & texture to finish the scene. Our Lincolnshire landscape is perfect for these, so feel free to bring your own favourite photos.

Experiment with Ink with artist Karin Christensen on Sunday 10th April, 2022 10.30 – 3.30pm 6 places £40pp Ink can be used in many different ways when sketching and painting. In this workshop we will explore the many possibilities of using ink as a medium. We will create sketches, various textures and different marks in order to become more familiar with ink as a creative medium. Ink and paper are included along with tea/coffee and biscuits – please bring a packed lunch.

Graphic Pen and Ink Drawing: Line, tone, texture with artist Jan Hill on Easter Monday 18th April, 2022 10.30 - 3.30pm. £45pp 6 places. A day to explore the dramatic possibilities of this one, simple medium, to represent the world around us with strange, spontaneous making of marks. Working from a wide range of real and photographic subject matter, this drawing session should free you of any hesitancy and make you unafraid of expressing yourself with a quickly produced black and white line, drawn directly from observation of your subjects. Basic Equipment required:- 2 or 3 different types of pen (felt-tip, cartridge, nib) & a bottle of permanent black ink. Cheap quality drawing paper, smooth or rough surface. Red, blue & yellow watercolour paints and 1 brush.

Painting with Boats in bold acrylic colours with artist on Sunday 20th February, 2022 10.30 – 3.30pm

to achieve a painting of sea, beach, harbour, lake or a canal with boats in the picture. The painting will be in acrylic materials and these can be applied in various forms from brush strokes to intense texture with other tools. I want you to enjoy the painting day and relax as I will start from the very basic level for any beginners and help more experience painters develop their skills further. Please bring with you acrylic materials and an acrylic board to paint on. It will be firmer for you to apply the paint to. I will guide you through the preparation of the picture in a stage by stage approach. I will encourage you to paint boldly and loosely with your colours. The paintings can be life like or abstract whatever you prefer. Or both! Please bring photo of the subject you want to paint. Do not worry if you have not have all the materials I will bring spare art materials with me. All beverages are provided but you will need to bring your packed lunch.
